About

Our Sanskrit name means perfect, whole, and complete. This simple idea dictates the design philosophy behind all the ceramics we make. Entirely handmade by local artisans at our facility in Bali, each piece is a thoughtful statement of contemporary design realized through the heart and hands of the finest skilled craftsmen in the world. Kevala Ceramics produces handmade stoneware, using clays and glaze recipes developed in house together with our Australian consultant. We carry a wide range of glazes and shapes and we are constantly developing new designs to keep ahead of an ever growing market. We specialize in working exclusively with clients to produce personalised unique ranges and we apply a competitive pricing structure to small or large orders. We have been operating for over 10 years selling mainly to Hotels, Restaurant and Spas around the world. Our collections cover all uses, from bathrooms and spas to restaurants, hotels and private homes. We also offer a distinctive line of homewares including vases, display dishes & tabletop amenities.
